WEEKLY REMINDERS:

Monday: Change reading books - Please have your reading book and reading record in school on this day.
Wednesday and Friday: PE - Come to school in PE clothes and stay in them all day.
Please can every child have a pair of spare wellies in school for when we go on our welly walks.
Thursday: Yr 1 Forest School - Please wear your uniform to school and change into your Forest School clothes at lunch time.

Please read together at home as much as you can and record this in your child’s reading record. Regular reading has an incredible impact on children and their development in all academic areas, and it’s lovely time together too. To celebrate regular reading at home, each time pupils read at home they will earn a star on a reading chart. When they reach the end of their chart, they will earn a small prize.
